To all clients drawing a superannuation pension:

Please note, the amount of minimum pension to be drawn, where a minimum exists (which is nearly all pensions), will be at a rate 50% higher in the year ended 30 June 2012 than it was in the year ended 30 June 2011

It is critical that the minimum required pension be drawn for the period within the financial year that the pension is running (where a minimum applies).

The good news is that a proposed further increase for the year ended 30 June 2013 will now not occur.

If at all uncertain about your minimum please do not hesitate to contact Natalie Stringer of this office.

Should you or any of your colleagues or acquaintances wish to see more detail please refer to Mark Rogerson's Blog, where there are a few articles explaining this in greater detail, please see these articles here:
